

The little green fish said,
“Bart the Shark has a big black fin
and lots of teeth in a horrid grin!”
Then she swam off and hid in a cave.

But the little pink crab did not hide.
“I am not afraid of Bart the Shark,” she said.
Then a big, dark shape swam up.
It was Bart the Shark!

He said,
“Bart the Shark likes to munch and munch.
Bart the Shark is looking for lunch!”
Bart saw the little crab and swam at her with a hungry grin.

The little crab gave him a nip on the end of his snout.
Bart the Shark did not like that at all.
“My snout!” he said as he swam off.
