Engage Literacy – Guided Reading Resource.

Engage Literacy is an award-winning program. Perfect for progression from decodables from Level 15, guided, independent and shared reading. The precisely levelled books, comprehensive teacher support and comprehension resources cover a huge variety of topics and provide an exciting and fun program to engage even the most reluctant of readers.

What makes Engage Literacy Special?

All 420 texts, both fiction and non-fiction, have been developed using carefully graded vocabulary lists, e.g. the word 'go' is introduced at Level 1 and 'going' is introduced at Level 4. Therefore, children build up a bank of high-frequency words, providing them with a smoother transition as they are introduced to higher-level texts. The texts enable children to build on their prior knowledge and make new connections based on these previous understandings.

Engage Literacy also includes a progressive academic vocabulary list of words, such as 'draw', 'make', & 'write', which are essential for early readers to successfully understand and complete academic tasks independently. Engage Literacy ensures that children are exposed to texts that match their developmental reading level, enabling greater potential for reading success & enhancing fluency.

The earlier levelled texts have a ratio of introduced words to known words of 1:20.

Program components:

- 420 Precisely levelled books
- Thematically linked fiction and non-fiction pairs
- Guided Reading Levels A-V, Early Intervention Levels 1-30, Reading Recovery Levels 1-20+
- Comprehensive teacher support
- Text-dependent and inferential questions for every page in every book
- Recurring characters include Lea, Min the Monkey, Baby Dinosaur, Little Sea Horse, Mr. Lee, and Kate and her dog Max.

Teacher's Resources.

- Downloadable teaching notes available to provide whole and small group instruction, ELL engagement, and assessment tools
- Blackline Masters and running records available
- Photocopiable activity worksheets are also included.

It's good to have a light.
If you want to go inside this cave.

A cave can be very dark.
No light can get inside this cave.

"Hello," said Grumpy Old Bear.
"While Moose, you are shouting!
Are you all having fun?"
"Yes!" shouted all the friends.

Icebergs are bigger than they look.
You only see the top of an iceberg
when you look at it.
The top is above water.

The bottom of the iceberg
is always bigger.
The bottom is under the water.

Elephants have a very long trunk.
An elephant can get food with its trunk.
It can get logs with its trunk, too.

Water is very good for you.
You need to drink lots of water.
The water we drink
comes from the rain.

WONDER WORDS – teaching children their first 100 sight words through stories.

What Sinks? What Floats?
Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Look at the cover and read the title of this book. What is the boy doing?	Q1: What things floated in the fish tank? What things sank?	Q1: What did the children do like real scientists?
A1: The boy is thinking he is looking at the things on the table. He is looking at the rock, the sponge, the crayon, the boat, and the apple.	A1: Little plants, fish food, and the teacher's pencil floated in the fish tank. Seashells and stones sank.	A1: The children made predictions first about what things would sink and what would float. They put their predictions on a chart. Then they put all the things in the water and saw what happened.
Q2: What do you think the boy is going to do?	Q2: After children did their experiments, what did they find out?	Q2: How did the children show their results?
A2: I think the boy is going to do a science experiment. He is going to see what will sink and what will float in water.	A2: The children found out that the boy, crayon, coin, and the seashell sank. They found out that the apple, block, sponge, ball, and boat floated.	A2: The children showed their results on another chart.

Sink or Float?

What Sinks? What Floats?

RELATED ACTIVITY

Let's See If It Sinks

Set up a center for sink and float activities. Provide a transparent plastic container partially filled with water. Place an assortment of objects next to the container. Encourage children to predict which items will sink and which will float. Have children sort the items according to the predictions and then test their assumptions. Invite them to explore whether some items that sink can be made to float and vice versa. For instance, students can experiment with a ball of clay to discover whether it can be made to float by changing its shape.

Chapter 2 School Camp

On the first day of school camp I reluctantly got on the bus. Mum waved goodbye with a tear in her eye and I sniffled sadly. I wasn't sad about leaving Mum, but the thought of a week without my tablet sent a shiver down my spine.

Caitlin and I spent the bus journey mostly in silence. She'd tried to sneak her tablet into her backpack, but her dad had found it when he put Caitlin's lunchbox in there. "Big mistake," Caitlin said so she didn't "ruin my dad gave me egg sandwiches. Could things get any worse?"

Centauri – a chilling thriller in six parts, developed for older, struggling readers.

I know this because it is marked on my hand.

Palmer's Mystery Hikes

Coming home from a friend's house one Sunday afternoon, Thomas came across a street full of rubbish. Piles of it in front of peoples' homes. It was a council clean up. Thomas peered into the heaps of stuff...and then something caught his eye on one of the untidy piles: a small, brown album full of old photos. It would take him back to the 1930s and a series of amazing hikes.

The Wolf is Not Invited

Self-confidence

Wolfgang is left heartbroken when his best friend Catreen runs off without him to play with Clarrissa.

There are some situations and feelings that we cannot change and there are some that we can.

The Wolf and the Shadow Monster

Anxiety & Fears

Wolfgang is excited to have his friends over to stay for the whole night. They all have great fun until the lights go out and Wolfgang's secret fear of the dark is revealed.

Life can sometimes be scary but there are some great tricks out there to make scary things not so scary any more.

The Grand Wolf

Change, Loss and Grief

Wolfgang and his friends love to visit the Grand Wolf but one day they arrive to find she has gone and this makes them all feel very sad. Spider shows Wolfgang that just by seeing things a little differently he can feel happy again.

The more we talk about and embrace change, the better we get at it (whatever shape or size it comes in).

The Wolf and the Baby Dragon

Worries & Calming Down

When Wolfgang and his friends learn about a secret cave where a baby dragon is living they quickly run off to find it, but Wolfgang gets left behind. His bag is full of heavy worries that are making him slow and he just can't let go of them. Spider shows him how to rest his busy mind and worries aren't so bad if you share them.

The Wolf's Colourful Coat

Bullying & Kindness

Wolfgang can't wait for it to get cold enough for him to wear his brand new colourful coat but when the time finally arrives, some nasty creatures make fun of it. Wolfgang feels upset. Spider encourages Wolfgang to tell someone he trusts about how he is feeling and he learns that things aren't always as they seem. Sometimes we get hurt by others and we have to be brave enough to continue to be ourselves and to keep our hearts open.

The Wolf Was Not Sleeping

Front line worker anxiety

Wolfgang's dad works as a helper: when the wolves sound the alarm, he has to leave to help the other creatures in the forest. Each night Wolfgang worries about what might happen if his dad gets the call. His worries are so bad that they keep him awake, and he is falling asleep in the daytime instead! Wolfgang learns that things aren't always as bad as they seem.

This anxiety management program gives children a simplified, helpful way to think about anxious chatter and to empower them with simple and fun ways to manage ANXIETY.

Lessons of a LAC and the anxiety management framework built around it, are the result of the author, Lynn Jenkins, and illustrator, Kirrili Lonergan's passion for intervention when it comes to children and their wellbeing.

PD OPPORTUNITY Lynn Jenkins & Kirrili Lonergan are available to run PD sessions at your school. See page 138 for more details.

Through an in-depth study of Lessons of a LAC, children will develop an ability to look beyond the simple story within a text and develop their inferential comprehension skills. The text can be used as a model to guide creativity and writing, and focus on grammatical features to allow children an opportunity to engage as an audience and create text of their own. Children are also given the opportunity to delve into their emotions and build an understanding of anxiety and how this can be a 'danger' to their emotional state.

AGES
4-12

Increases understanding about anxiety and empowers children to become aware of their particular anxious signs with the help of much-loved characters, Loppy and Curly. Children at an early age will be empowered with the right approach to dealing with anxiety at any age.

Have you ever needed to do something that made you nervous even thinking about doing? Kids do all the time. Going to bed, weathering through storms, going to school, speaking in class, making a new friend and so on. Children are expected to just get on with it! This book helps teach kids how to find their BRAVE.

Especially for those little people who find it hard to make mistakes, designed to 'shape' perfectionistic tendencies towards being a little more self-accepting and flexible. Gives children ways to think about and manage common emotional difficulties. A valuable resource for every child to help guide their emotional development.

Help children to understand the link between how they see things and how they feel. Children will learn that a simple shift in perception can often give them some influence over their feelings, helping build their emotional resilience.

An ideal resource to help children learn how to say goodbye and process grief. One day Curly and Loppy notice that Tree's leaves are starting to fall – at the wrong time of year – and Tree's bark is flaking. It's Tree's time to leave.

Maths is too hard! Maths is boring! I don't like maths! Sound familiar?

Most young kids start out loving their new found maths skills, but repetitive practise of the same types of sums and questions can be counter productive and will eventually turn off enthusiastic young mathematicians.

Go For It Maths! reinforces maths ideas by getting kids to use their knowledge and skills in lots of different ways. By playing number games, using reasoning and solving problems, students will see connections between different maths concepts and have the joy of discovering how maths and numbers work in the real world.

Designed for young readers to use on their own or with an adult, the book's games and activities can be enjoyed by a single child, students working in pairs, or a whole group of kids problem-solving together. The aim of the books is to support and supplement the learning children do during maths lessons. The books will also provide plenty of material for busy teachers to use when planning lessons.

WHAT OUR SCHOOLS SAY ABOUT US:

“I have dealt with Julie from Lioncrest twice now and she was fantastic. Quick, efficient and always ready to help. We even received some “Lionshare” books for free which was a lovely surprise. Our first lot of resources arrived promptly and well packed. We are looking forward to the arrival of our second batch!! Thank you.” Karen P

“High quality books that cater to students of all reading abilities.” Sarah J

“When remote learning was announced, we needed to ensure that we had sufficient resources to enable our children to continue to access high quality take home readers. I reached out to Lioncrest and we hit the jackpot. We were not just able to top up our resources, but were ably assisted by an exceptionally supportive consultant in Janice Barletta. Our children have directly benefited from Lioncrest’s resources and support. As a school community we are exceptionally grateful and appreciative.” Grant L

“Thanks for Lioncrest’s efficiency in completing a difficult order to ensure our books were delivered for the start of the term. The helpful and well organised staff were able to connect with us in Western Australia and help us, through our WA Rep, to complete all details.” Alison F

“Lioncrest Education provided beyond amazing customer service and speedy delivery to our school! The books we purchased were fantastic and the follow up service was second to none – 5 stars all round!” Macalie V

“I’m a librarian and just did a large order with Lioncrest. Wonderful service and great helpful staff. I’ll be back.” Cheryl W
